Spirit of the living one pour yourself on me

D                                    Bm                                    A                                    G

I see the signs of the rain to come and I just wanna be

                                  Bm    A
Ready for you

                                  G                                    A
I'm ready for you to come in your glory

                                  Bm    A
I'm ready for you

                                  G                                    A                                    G                                    A
I'm ready for you to come and pour your rain on me

D                    Bm                                    A                                    G
I am dry and thirsty God , in this land where there's no water

D                                    Bm                                    A                                    G
No one else can quench my thirst and fill me like you, Father

Em                                    F#m                                    G
Take me farther into your waters    Take me out to the deep
